

Job Title/Position: Director of Youth Ministry

Status: Part Time or Full Time

Reports To: Head of Staff/Education Ministry

Date Created: August 2020

Background on First Presbyterian Church – Columbus, Georgia

First Presbyterian Church is a forward-thinking, historic church located in uptown Columbus, Georgia. We are seeking a dynamic, compassionate, and organized Director of Youth Ministry (grades 6-12). The ideal candidate must demonstrate a faithful, committed relationship with Christ and a genuine engagement and connection with today's youth and their families. Must have excellent communication skills and the ability to creatively guide and implement the vision of First Presbyterian Church's Youth Ministry. Will nurture volunteer leadership that will assist in scheduling, planning, and leading events and activities that grow the next generation into faith and discipleship. Please visit <https://www.columbusfpc.com/youthdirectorwelcome> for a warm welcome from First Presbyterian Church to you.

Facebook: <http://facebook.com/columbusfpc>

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/columbusfpc/>

Responsibilities

- Oversee and grow the church's Youth ministries
- Identify ways to incorporate the Youth, and their gifts, into the life of the church
- Provide opportunities for spiritual growth through bible study, worship leadership, service opportunities, fellowship and fun, including mission trips and other periodic overnight/weekend activities
- Develop positive relationships with the Youth and their families
- Effectively and responsibly engage in social media
- Model a Christ-centered life
- Regularly pray for FPC's Youth Ministry and the community
- Connect with the Youth, supporting them in their extracurricular activities
- Work with church staff and Youth Ministry Team to select curricula, and plan and implement Youth events and activities

Qualifications

- Post high school degree, preferably in Christian Education

-Minimum of one year experience leading youth or family oriented ministry in church or community setting

-Ability to plan and lead Youth oriented events

-Ability to recruit, train and oversee volunteers, collaborate with colleagues and church members, and provide leadership in meetings, Youth events, Bible study, and worship settings

- Ability to effectively and responsibly utilize social media and technology to connect, engage, and inform Youth

-Must pass comprehensive background screening

- NOTE: This call is part time OR full time in order to seek the best candidate for this position.

To Apply

To apply, please send Cover Letter, Resume, Personal Statement of Faith, and contact information for a minimum of three references to:

Attention: Aaron Dow
1112 Laurelwood Rd.
Columbus 31904

Email: Adow1998@yahoo.com

1100 First Avenue

Columbus, GA 31901

Benefits

-Health insurance (Full Time Only)

-Retirement plan(Full Time Only)

-Paid personal time off

-Professional development opportunities