

Director of Family Ministries, P/T
at The Presbyterian Church of Chatham Township (“PCCT”)

Join us as our new Director of Family Ministries as we transition to a more missional focus in our ministries, finding new ways to include our families in community service outreach and education. We are a theological progressive, 700-member church located in beautiful Chatham Township, New Jersey, a commuter train ride from NYC, and part of the Presbyterian Church (USA).

The Director of Family Ministries (“DFM”) will be a Christian who loves church and families, especially children. This is a new position to be filled by a leader who is energized by the opportunity to build something awesome and relevant for our times. The new DFM will implement our emerging vision for service-oriented, family-focused, hands-on learning experiences for children from nursery through and including eighth grade for the program year. The DFM must be willing to work on Sundays, and on Christmas Eve and Easter, lead stories in worship, recruit and train teachers for Sunday School, and organize new programming around our mission outreach theme for families. A full job description is available from our church administrator Ceri Gilpin who can be reached at (973) 635-2340 or cgilpin@pcct-nj.org.

Time Commitment and Benefits: This is a 28 hour/week salaried position, starting at $37,000 per year, as an annual contract that is automatically renewable. With growth, this position could potentially become full-time. Medical and pension benefits are not offered for this position. We offer four weeks of vacation in addition to two Sundays off in the program year. The DFM will attend weekly church staff meetings and regular supervisory meetings as well as serving on the Christian Education committee.

Education and skills: Have a BA or BS degree, preferably in education; ideally in religious education; Master of Divinity degree preferred. We seek someone personable with all ages and who possesses strong communication skills, is computer savvy, and comfortable using social media platforms. Previous experience as a Director of Christian Education or Director of Family Ministry is a plus, or relevant experience on a church staff, as a teacher, or as a volunteer coordinator.

To apply: please submit resume and cover email to cgilpin@pcct-nj.org.
