Dear Sisters in Christ,

Holidays are over, the year is over, and we are moving forward into a new decade, 2020. Unbelievable how quickly time flies! Remember how nervous everyone was when we hit 2000? Do you ever stop what you are doing and reflect on the past years in your own life and wonder how you ever were able to do all you did as well as ponder what the future has in store for you? My goodness, look at technology and where we are today! Look at the smart phones and what we are able to do. I remember years ago seeing an 80+ year old gentleman on his cell phone in the grocery store and thought that so odd! Now even toddlers are playing with their own tablet! Amazing, isn't it?

Reflect now on your PW group or your women's group at your church... where and what were you doing in 2000 as opposed to now? Remember the good times and the great memories? I would love to have a collection of memories that we can highlight in our next SEEDS. If you or someone in your women's group would care to share memories from the past, please send to me or our editor, Janet Triplett, so we can highlight special moments, programs, mission projects, retreats, etc. annesivley@aol.com or janet-triplett@att.net

Our Coordinating Team decided to try something new and have a one-day Women's Retreat on Saturday, March 21 from 9-3 at Shepherd's Grove in Irvine. "Reflect, Refresh, Recharge" is the title. Rev. Candie Blankman will be our featured speaker. We get so busy in our lives taking care of this and that and often we are the ones who just need to slow down, take care of ourselves, and do as our title suggests. We will have activities planned that will definitely get you relaxed and recharged. There will be fun and laughter. Dress comfortably and plan on a day JUST for YOU!! Continental breakfast and lunch included. Babysitting will be provided. See the attached flyer. This is a way that all can share together and have one retreat. Come make new friends!!

In November we had an excellent and informative program, Asylum Defined, hosted by the women at Grace First in Long Beach. We learned firsthand from a refugee, awaiting a hearing, share her story as well as hear the legal aspects of asylum seekers from an attorney and from Kristi Van Nostran, Immigrant Accompaniment Organizer of Pacific and San Gabriel Presbyteries, share about the visitations to Adelanto near Victorville where almost 2000 immigrants are being detained and awaiting a hearing. Included in this edition is an article from Canyon Hills Pres. in Anaheim Hills as to how their women's Circles responded. As you read the article, you will see what a powerful impact this gesture of love made for our lonely and frightened sisters and brothers who are incarcerated. On Friday, February 27, I will be driving a carload to visit immigrants in Adelanto. If you would like to go, please email me. The time frame will be from about 9-4:30. A little gesture of sisterly love will make an indelible imprint and give hope to so many who are desperately in need.

Continued Blessings for you all,
Anne Sivley

Response to 2019 Fall Gathering topic, "Asylum Defined"

Canyon Hills Presbyterian Women's Coordinating Team met after the 2019 November Gathering and discussed possibilities of what we could do to be of assistance to the asylum seekers, particularly those at the Adelanto Processing Center. We were told that they could use $10 Target or Ralph's cards to purchase items that they needed, so our team voted to purchase cards and get them to them prior to Christmas. We felt the cards would definitely assist them, but we wanted to do something more personal. Anne Sivley shared a story with us when she had visited the Adelanto Processing Center and spoken with an asylum seeker in the facility who had no visitors or family for a long period of time and was very lonely. It was suggested that since the Christmas holiday was approaching, maybe we could send them cards with personal notes. Kristi Van Nostran, an Immigrant Accompaniment Organizer, was able to get us names and addresses of over 50 individuals, along with their addresses at the facility, language spoken, and their country of origin. We divided the lists between our four circles and to send generic holiday greeting cards to each of the individuals, as we were not sure what their faith, if any, was.

At our circle meeting in December, each circle member wrote a personal note on the card addressed to a specific individual and signed them with their first name only. Even though we did not know these individuals, we tried to write notes of encouragement and support. We used our church's address as the return address on the envelope, not really expecting anything in return. However, much to our surprise, we did receive responses from several individuals thanking us for the card and expressing how good it was to know that someone was thinking of them despite the situation and the strange land. One lady responded, "Thanks for letting me know that I am not alone, for the Lord is with me and He is my Peace in The Midst of the Storm." Another gentleman stated, "I really do appreciate your card; you can't understand how it makes me feel. Thank you so much and God bless you."

Just sending out the cards was rewarding but receiving the responses made us realize how very important that simple gesture of caring had been.

How a private prison giant has continued to thrive in a state that wants it out

As California passes laws aimed at ridding the state of private immigration detention centers, GEO Group continues to expand.

Rebecca Plevin, Palm Springs Desert Sun Updated 8:54 p.m. PST Jan. 25, 2020

California's Democrat-dominated legislature is waging a fierce battle to rid the state of private immigration detention centers, which many lawmakers say prioritize profits over the health and safety of detainees. Yet the GEO Group, a private prison company with some 20 detention centers across the country — including one (continued on p.8)

(GEO) is a Florida-based company specializing in privatized corrections, detention, and mental health treatment. in California's Mojave desert and another in the state's agricultural Central Valley — continues to secure billions of dollars worth of contracts from the federal government for operations in the Golden State

The Desert View Correctional Facility is operated by the GEO Group and may be converted to an immigration detention facility in Adelanto, Calif., on Jan. 22, 2020.

Assemblymember Rob Bonta, a Democrat who represents Alameda and parts of Oakland, introduced AB 32 in December 2018 seeking to phase out the use of private prisons. But on June 25, 2019 — the same day Adelanto's agreements with ICE and GEO ended — he amended the bill to include private detention centers.

That change meant GEO and ICE would be able to continue operating the Adelanto detention center until the contract expired in March 2020, but would not be allowed to renew the agreement.

Adelanto detention center. The new contract not only covers the 1,940-bed detention center, but also allows for the facility's expansion by incorporating GEO's 750-bed Desert View prison in Adelanto.

On Wednesday night, {January a standing-room-only crowd packed the city's first Planning Commission hearing regarding the plan to convert GEO's into an annex for the detention center. GEO officials clad in suits, and GEO employees grasping signs reading, "please save our jobs," filled rows of seats, while immigrant advocates and some residents leaned against the walls.

Regina Duran, a 15-year Adelanto resident and mother of four who has been employed by GEO for more than eight years, said working for the company has changed her life. Before joining GEO as an officer, she said, she worked as a hairdresser and relied on welfare. She has since bought a house and been promoted, she said.

"GEO has brought to the city unlimited possibilities," Duran said.

But Jose Servin of the California Immigrant Youth Justice Alliance encouraged the commissioners to embrace a new vision for the city.

"Quality of life doesn't go up where there are prisons," Servin said. "Quality of life goes up where there are hospitals, where there are parks, where there are better schools. That's not going to happen with GEO."

According to city staff, the commission is expected to meet on Feb. 5 for a second hearing on whether to allow GEO to convert the prison into an immigration detention center serving ICE.

Did You Know..... That Habitat for Humanity Orange County has a Presbyterian Coalition with churches in Los Ranchos Presbytery?

A few years ago, our Los Ranchos Presbytery began a coalition of churches from Los ranchos Presbytery to who partner with Habitat for Humanity OC to live out our faith through monthly Build Days and quarterly coalition meetings. We began with the McFadden Five homes in Santa Ana. Currently we are coordinating our efforts on the homes in Fullerton. Recently the first four of twelve homes were dedicated. The second phase has begun. Each month there is an opportunity for our churches to have volunteers to help in the construction of the homes.

****There are two ways our Women's Groups can help:

- 1. Snacks and coffee at 7:30 a.m.—bring enough coffee (2 containers from Starbucks for example with cream, cups, stir sticks, etc.) and snack bars or donut holes, etc.—usually for 15-18 folks (can set up and leave).
- 2. Lunch at 11:30 a.m.—prepare and bring lunch for all workers (maybe for 25).

Thus far our Coalition consists of the following churches in Los Ranchos Presbytery: Community Pres. Church in San Juan Capistrano; First Pres. Orange; First Pres. Fullerton; First Pres Santa Ana; Laguna Niguel Pres.; Placentia Pres.; Pres. Church of the Covenant, Costa Mesa; Trabucco Pres.; Yorba Linda Pres.; Laguna Beach Pres.; Tustin Pres.; and San Clemente Pres.

The Journey through the Tabernacle

The Tabernacle Experience is not a museum.

One step inside the Tabernacle Courtyard will translate you into Old Testament times. You will experience a day in the life of an Old Testament priest as you engage in the duties and rituals within the Tabernacle.

First you will be 'clothed' in the White Linen Garment of the priest. At the Altar of Burnt Offering you will lay your sacrifice on its consuming fire. You'll approach the Laver and wash your hands in preparation for the work of The LORD. At the Lampstand you'll light an oil lamp and participate in Communion at The Table of Bread. The smoke rising at The Altar of Incense will heighten your senses and remind you of your prayers ascending to the very throne of God. As you draw back the Curtain and enter The Most Holy Place your journey will culminate before the Ark of The Covenant and The Mercy Seat.

Each guest contributes $6.00 toward The Tabernacle Experience. School Age and above. (Maximum $20.00 per immediate family). We believe the contribution to be nominal, yet it could pose a hardship on some. Our mission is to provide this Spiritually Life transforming Encounter to everyone. Therefore, everyone is welcome, and no one is turned away. Visit The Tabernacle Experience at https://www.thetabernacleexperience.com/

National African-American (Black) History Month: February 2020

JANUARY 22, 2020 RELEASE NUMBER CB20-FF.01

To commemorate and celebrate the contributions to our nation made by people of African descent, American historian Carter G. Woodson established Black History Week. The first celebration occurred on Feb. 12, 1926. For many years, the second week of February was set aside for this celebration to coincide with the birthdays of abolitionist/editor Frederick Douglass and Abraham Lincoln. In 1976, as part of the nation's bicentennial, the week was expanded to a month. Since then, U.S. presidents have proclaimed February as National African-American History Month

African Americans have been enriching the Presbyterian Church for more than two centuries

John Gloucester 1776- 1822

Lucy Craft Laney 1854 - 1933

"[I]n 1807, [John] Gloucester arrived in Philadelphia and began preaching. Rising from slavery and oppression, he formed the first African American Presbyterian congregation in 1811 and led African American Presbyterians to see the light of Christ within each of them. He was the first ordained African American minister in the Presbyterian Church.

African American women have played a major role in shaping education throughout the years. Lucy Craft Laney, who organized a school in the basement of Christ Presbyterian Church in Augusta, Ga., was a recipient of the General Assembly Women of Faith Award. Mary McLeod Bethune received her early training at a Presbyterian mission school and went on to establish what became Bethune-Cookman College, a private, historically black college in Daytona Beach, Fla. In 1923, McLeod became one of only a few women in the world to serve as a college president."

THE LATEST NEWS ON FARM WORKERS & THEIR CAMPAIGNS

National Farm Worker Ministry

Visit http://nfwm.org/ for additional/current information

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

As a ministry that supports all farm worker organizing groups and farm workers everywhere, we have wanted to see a path to U.S. citizenship for farm workers and we have advocated for significant improvements to the H-2A guest worker program. Last fall a new bill was introduced in Congress, the Farm Workforce Modernization Act of 2019 (https://www.congress.gov/bill/116th-congress/house-bill/4916). This bi-partisan bill combines much of what we promoted last year as the "blue card" bill with a path to citizenship for farm workers.

The UFW, UFW Foundation (https://ufw.org/immigrationact/), and Farmworker Justice (https://bit.ly/2tf98K1) (PDF) helped to negotiate this legislation over many months, and PCUN and FLOC have also endorsed it. Some of our farm worker partners, however, have expressed concern about the bill and, particularly, the inclusion of e-verify (https://civileats.com/2019/12/11/immigrants-lift-up-a-food-system-in-need-of-reform and http://familiasunidasjusticia.org/en/2019/11/25/familias-unidas-initial-position-on-the-farmworker-modernization-act-of-2019).

On December 11th, the Farm Workforce Modernization Act passed the House of Representatives and moved on to the Senate for consideration. It has been assigned to the Judiciary Committee at this point so there is time to contact state Senators and ask them to forward this bill's path to citizenship, improve regulations in the H-2A Guest worker visa program and remove e-verify. We will continue to monitor this legislation and provide updates.

FLOC UPDATE

FLOC (Farm Labor Organizing Committee AFL-CIO) is joining forces to demand that Whole Foods clean up the labor practices in its supply chain.

When Oxfam, a nonprofit working to end the injustice of poverty, assessed human rights violations, it found major concerns with Whole Foods. It scored Whole Foods below Walmart in its supermarket chains. What is disappointing is that Whole Foods is considered a humane company and a sustainable grocer that features locally grown and organic products. It could lead, the industry but there are problems with how farm workers are treated in its supply chain https://www.oxfamamerica.org/explore/stories/something-rotten-whole-foods/. FLOC is constantly speaking for farm workers about collective bargaining, fair wages, and decent working/living conditions. They have asked Whole Foods to meet with them to talk about this but Whole Foods has refused

OCIC Fall Fundraiser 2019

Sunday evening, November 10, 2019, the Orange County Interfaith Committee to Aid Farm Workers (OCIC), now in its 54th year, held its annual fundraiser for the National Farm Worker Ministry (NFWM) at St. Mark Presbyterian Church in Newport Beach, CA. With over 120 in attendance, they were able to send $5600 to the NFWM! Special thanks to Pam Presnall for promotions and registration, Gerri McNenny for the silent auction, and Deborah Mayhew (moderator of Los Ranchos Presbytery and member of St. Mark) for rehearsing fourth graders in a skit about a visitation from César Chávez and who also served as the photographer of the evening. Irene Arellano produced a Day of the Dead altar honoring Chávez and other farm workers who died in the fields.

After viewing the NFWM video, "Maricela's Story," which recounted a farm worker's story of sexual harassment, the participants were treated to a special performance by a female mariachi band for clapping and singing and even some dancing. Committee members and many volunteers helped to make this a successful event.

As the oldest support group for farm workers in the nation, OCIC is thankful for their founders: Nat and Ralph Kennedy, Jean and Frank Forbath, Jeanne and Roy Giordano (all but Jean Forbath who just celebrated her 90th birthday are gone), and the Rev. Chris Hartmire, first director of the NFWM, who is still alive and kicking.

NFWM is grateful for the support of OCIC, both in raising funds for the Ministry and for participating in farm worker campaigns.

PWP Operation's Pledge $

Presbyterian Women's Operating Budget – Support for the operating expenses of PW at the Presbytery and Synod. The operating pledge is calculated by multiplying the Mission Pledge by 6.5% (example, a pledge of $1000 multiplied by .065 = $65.00). Your treasurer will send this amount in a separate check to the PWP Treasurer, Jo Sutton, at the above address.

Based on the total of all the operating pledges, the Finance Committee will develop the budget for Presbyterian Women in the Presbytery of Los Ranchos. The budget will be approved at a PWP gathering.
