

Director of Music Ministry – Pines Presbyterian Church – Houston, Texas

Job Summary: Pines Presbyterian Church seeks a servant leader who will use the gift of music as a ministry to help us pursue our mission to create disciples who know, love, and trust in Jesus Christ. A key part of this role is to lead our church family in musical worship. The Director of Music Ministry is responsible to the Pastor as Head of Staff and has a close working relationship with the Worship and Staff Committees. We seek a vibrant professional who will empower our multigenerational congregation and friends of all ages and cultures to use their talents in service to God.

Required qualifications: An undergraduate degree in music or equivalent, with choral expertise. Minimum 3-5 years working as a church choral director.

Desired skills: The successful candidate shall be a dedicated Christian who demonstrates excellent musicianship (piano required, organ a plus), ability to coach and conduct volunteer musicians of all levels, and familiarity with and respect for all types of worship music. Strong interpersonal, teaching, and administrative skills are also required.

Note: We also are seeking a Church Musician with strong organ skills. We will consider combining the positions if the applicant has both sets of skills. If you are interested in working as both Director of Music Ministry and Church Musician, please indicate that in your cover letter.

Compensation and Benefits: Commensurate with experience and expertise. Twenty hours/week. Benefits available.

Send cover letter and resume, including references, to musicsearch@pinespc.org no later than January 15, 2022.
