

HANDBOOK OF REPORTS
for the 189th STATED MEETING
of the
SHENANDOAH PRESBYTERY

Via Zoom
Tuesday, May 25, 2021
9:30 a.m.

Shenandoah Presbytery is a covenant body where:

- ~congregations are empowered to be centers for mission,
- ~people of God are equipped to be Disciples of Christ in a challenging world,
- ~church professionals are nurtured and strengthened for service,
- ~open communication and information are used constructively and creatively to keep us connected.

INFORMATION PERTAINING TO MEETINGS OF PRESBYTERY
Per Presbytery Manual Chapter V

Number of Meetings – Our Book of Order (G-3.0304) requires presbytery to hold stated meetings at least twice each year. At this time, there will be four STATED meetings for 2021: February 27, May 25, August 28, and November 16.

Kind of Meetings – Besides stated meetings there are adjourned meetings and special meetings.

Adjourned Meetings – Held to conclude unfinished business of preceding stated meeting. New Business may be placed on docket.

Special Meetings – The moderator shall call a special meeting at the request of, or with the concurrence of, two ministers and two elders being of different churches. Should the moderator be unable to act, the stated clerk shall, under the same conditions, issue the call. If both moderator and stated clerk are unable to act, any three ministers and three elders, the elders being of different churches, may call a special meeting. The Synod may direct the Presbytery to convene a special meeting for the transaction of designated business. Notice of a special meeting shall be sent not less than ten (10) days in advance to each minister and to the session of every church. The notice shall set out the purpose of the meeting and no other business than that listed in the notice shall be transacted.

Who Determines Type of Meetings? – The presbytery itself. If the business at a stated meeting is not completed in the time allowed on the docket, then the presbytery votes to extend the time on that day or votes to schedule an adjourned meeting later. Special meetings may be called in conformity with presbytery's policy, expressed in its manual.

Docket Preparation – The Presbytery Meeting Planning Committee composes the docket. Time periods for committee reports are arranged in consultation with chairs and others responsible for reports.

Docket Problems – The times listed for the presentation of reports are only general orders, and not orders of the day, unless specifically noted (see Procedural Rule A). Frequently, debate bogs down over procedural matters, and controversial issues create considerable discussion. Presbytery can always limit debate. Candidates and transferring ministers of necessity may require special considerations for their examinations because of such things as travel schedules and seminary schedules. The docket may be amended at any time during the meeting. Commissioners should be aware of possible extension of time needed for such amendments and the possible delay in adjournment.

PROCEDURAL RULES

5.5. OPERATING PROCEDURES

- 5.5.1. The Presbytery shall in its proceedings abide by the requirements of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), its Standing Rules or Manual of Operations, and Robert's Rules of Order (newly revised) in this order. A list of procedural rules adopted by Presbytery shall be printed on the inside cover of each handbook.
- 5.5.2. A report of any agency of Presbytery requiring more than 10 minutes of Presbytery time may be made an Order of the Day.
- 5.5.3. Reports having been mailed out in advance, the committee chairperson shall not read the report except to make reference to a few highlights of the report and to recommendations by numbers, moving their adoption.
 - A. Any reports not included in the Handbook shall be submitted as part of a Supplemental Report available either electronically or on paper distributed prior to the beginning of the Presbytery meeting at which the report is presented.
 - B. Any report not so circulated shall not be received by the Presbytery except by approval of the governing body by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting. If a group wishes to submit such a report, a person shall summarize its content and purpose before the vote is taken.
- 5.5.4. On matters where there may be deep concern, possible controversy or lack of information, the committee making the report shall provide critical background information, so that the governing body may expeditiously make wise and considered decisions.
- 5.5.5. Debate shall be free and open, with equal time being given to proponents and opponents insofar as possible.
- 5.5.6. Any member of the governing body desiring to speak must stand, identify themselves by name and congregation, be recognized by the Moderator, and go to a microphone if available.
- 5.5.7. A member of the presbytery may speak twice on any particular motion, and not for more than a total of five minutes, but the second time may only be granted after all who have not yet spoken have had an opportunity to do so. The maker of the motion is entitled to speak first, if desired.
- 5.5.8. Lengthy motions must be written out and presented to the Stated Clerk.
- 5.5.9. References to the following procedures from Robert's Rules of Order may prove useful:
 - A. A committee recommendation does not require a second to be on the floor.
 - B. Other motions require a second prior to discussion or action.
 - C. When there is no apparent disagreement or objection to a motion, the Moderator may declare it is adopted by common or general consent.
- 5.5.10. No flash photography will be allowed during the worship service at meetings of Presbytery.
- 5.5.11. When Presbytery meets in a location where seating is limited, priority shall be given to voting members for seating within the meeting area. If it is necessary to use other rooms for overflow seating, visitors and other non-voting members shall use these areas.
- 5.5.12. QUORUM:
A quorum of the Presbytery shall be any ten teaching elders and ten ruling elders from at least ten different congregations. (G-3.0304).

Seeking to be Faithful Together:

Guidelines for Presbyterians During Times of Disagreement

In a spirit of trust and love, we promise we will . . .

Give them a hearing . . . listen before we answer John 7:51 and Proverbs 18:13	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Treat each other respectfully so as to build trust, believing that we all desire to be faithful to Jesus the Christ; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · we will keep our conversations and communications open for candid and forthright exchange, · we will not ask questions or make statements in a way which will intimidate or judge others. 2. Learn about various positions on the topic of disagreement. 3. State what we think we heard and ask for clarification before responding, in an effort to be sure we understand each other.
Speak the truth in love Ephesians 4:15	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. Share our concerns directly with individuals or groups with whom we have disagreements in a spirit of love and respect in keeping with Jesus' teaching. 5. Focus on ideas and suggestions instead of questioning people's motives, intelligence or integrity; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · we will not engage in name-calling or labeling of others prior to, during, or following the discussion. 6. Share our personal experiences about the subject of disagreement so that others may more fully understand our concerns.
Maintain the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace Ephesians 4:3	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 7. Indicate where we agree with those of other viewpoints as well as where we disagree. 8. Seek to stay in community with each other though the discussion may be vigorous and full of tension; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · we will be ready to forgive and be forgiven. 9. Follow these additional Guidelines when we meet in decision-making bodies: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · urge persons of various points of view to speak and promise to listen to these positions seriously; · seek conclusions informed by our points of agreement; · be sensitive to the feelings and concerns of those who do not agree with the majority and respect their rights of conscience; · abide by the decision of the majority, and if we disagree with it and wish to change it, work for that change in ways which are consistent with the Guidelines. 10. Include our disagreements in our prayers, not praying for the triumph of our viewpoints, but seeking God's grace to listen attentively, to speak clearly, and to remain open to the vision God holds for us all.

We reviewed the 2020 financial records of the Shenandoah Presbytery and have found them to be accurate and complete.

We found all receipts and expenditures organized and correct.

We commend Heather Carter for her diligence and organization of the finances for the Presbytery.

SHENANDOAH LIVING WATERS TEAM

Shenandoah Presbytery's Living Waters Team (LWT) is a partner with Living Waters for the World www.livingwatersfortheworld.org, a mission initiative of the Synod of Living Waters (Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky).

The Shenandoah Presbytery Living Waters Team functions under the Committee on Mission & Outreach (CMO), through whom it is accountable to the Presbytery CPC and to the Presbytery. The LWT is a Presbytery-based team that works with any Shenandoah Presbytery organization to help bring clean water to a developing country partner.

The LWT includes members who have all been trained at Clean Water U, the mission training facility of Living Waters for the World. They are led by Mac Sterrett, the Living Waters Team leader.

In their role, the LWT trains and equips groups in the Presbytery to survey, install, train and sustain partners on the Living Waters for the World water purification system. They serve as a resource for Presbytery groups doing water systems. Once the system is up and going, the LWT steps back and serves in a sustaining advisory capacity as needed.

Today's Presentation

Chris Hamilton and Doug Sensabaugh, members of the Living Waters Team from Massanutten Presbyterian Church, are making a brief video presentation which digs a little deeper into the Living Waters program. You will hear an overview of the whole process and see what the system looks like and how it is built.

Following the video, there will an opportunity to ask questions and to learn how your congregation(s) can get involved in the amazing mission program.

How Can You Get Involved?

- Call for information - Mac Sterrett at macsterrett@comcast.net.
- Set appointment to see the Living Waters System in-person at Massanutten
- Signup to go see a system in action in Guatemala in early 2022
- Request a video presentation for your church by contacting Chris Hamilton at hamiltoncp52@gmail.com or Doug Sensabaugh at cdsensabaugh@gmail.com.

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH VITALITY AND TRANSFORMATION (CCVT)

Stated Purpose of CCVT: To provide processes and support for congregations that have an identified need, willingness, and ability to engage in spiritual and/or programmatic growth which can lead to deeper commitment both within and beyond current membership.

CCVT Members: David Witt, chair; Phil Sommer, vice-chair; Malcolm Brownlee, Rick Comstock, Ed Dawkins, JoAnn Harmon, Tracie Martin, Juliana Ritchie, Nancy Meehan Yao, Associate General Presbyter, Staff Support

Report to Shenandoah Presbytery - Tuesday, May 25, 2021

✓ Grants to Churches for Innovative Worship

CCVT has awarded 23 grants since March 2020, totaling almost $18,000, all the grants for the advancement of technology for worship, both hardware and connections (ZOOM). These grants have come from the 2018 Fund, which was originally for $3,000 per year, 3 grants per year, with a single congregation receiving up to $1,000 per year. The application is on the presbytery website, has been highlighted at presbytery meetings, and has been included in recent e-letters. In light of the COVID pandemic, CCVT has set aside the limit of three grants per year but reaffirmed the $1,000 per year to one congregation benchmark. CPA has graciously and generously allocated additional funds for CCVT to award, including $10,000 in February. These grants are making virtual worship available now within many communities and will be useful for ministry through worship and other areas in the future. Since our last meeting, we have awarded a grant to Westminster Church. We have surveyed congregations who have received grants and also followed up with specific questions. We are always willing to share with any and all churches how these grants have made a difference in the life and ministry of congregations and are also interested in congregations sharing “their expertise” with others.

✓ “Barnabas Fund” Grant

We recently awarded a grant to the Bridgewater Church from the Barnabas Fund for critical work needed on their heating/AC infrastructure. This fund was established by pastors, actively serving and retired, to reflect that we are members of the presbytery (and not a congregation) and want to support the presbytery in its ministry of encouragement (based on the biblical character of Barnabas, known as “son of encouragement,” Acts 4:36) to churches who face critical building needs. The fund remains open for contributions from any and all!

✓ Rethinking Evangelism Continuing Education Event for Presbytery

We continue to explore a workshop for the presbytery that would concentrate on “What is Evangelism?” and “The Nuts & Bolts of Evangelism.”

✓ Encouragement for Congregations

We believe there may be churches who have deferred major building maintenance; who have postponed dealing with tough issues; who have avoided conflict; who are wrestling with worship concerns and overall change. Some churches seem to be “in suspension during 2020-21” and who keep asking “Are We There Yet?” Please stay tuned to available resources shared by Shenandoah Presbytery and the larger church and contact our committee with specific questions and concerns. A resource called “Church Re-Entry Roadmap: Creating A Plan for Your Ministry” was recently emailed out, in addition to a grid called “The Post-COVID Behavior Change” alignment chart that invites individual reflection and response.

We also invite congregations to ask these six reflective questions...

1. “Have we represented Jesus well during the past year?”
2. “Are we representing Jesus well as we move through and beyond these challenges?”
3. “What have we learned – and what are we still learning?”
4. “How can we better serve the people at home?”

5. “How well are we serving our online church members and visitors?”
6. “How are people hurting, and what can we do to help them?”

“Will the Congregation Come Back?” Should Not Be our Biggest Concern.
(6 Better Questions) by Karl Vaters

✓ Partnership with Other Committees

We are honored to work with our colleagues from partner committees – Committee on New Congregational Development, Committee on Relational Ministries, and Committee on Pastoral Transitions. We continue to share conversation and collaborate on projects and endeavors that will benefit both congregations and the whole presbytery.

✓ New Committee Members

We rejoice as we welcome to new members to CCVT, the Rev. Alexa Smith, interim/transitional pastor at the Berkeley Springs Church and Elder Mary Jo Johnson of the Sunnyside Church. We are grateful to the Nominations Committee of Shenandoah Presbytery for bringing these two gifted individuals on-board CCVT!

✓ Today’s Presentation

CCVT is pleased to present a special report from special people from a special church at the presbytery meeting today...we celebrate Piedmont Presbyterian Church of Piedmont, WV, where the Rev. Tom Forbes serves as pastor.

Respectfully Submitted,
David Witt, CCVT Chair

COMMITTEE ON NEW CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CNCD)

The Committee on New Congregational Development has been actively supporting the burgeoning New Worshiping Communities in Shenandoah Presbytery through grants and support for their leadership through liaisons with each NWC. Church of Wild Two Rivers continues to flourish and the Sherando Food Pantry, part of the SC2 NWC, continues to feed hungry people. The Community Cup is still in the development stage and recently met to establish next steps. We ask that you please keep these NWC's in your prayers and to also pray to hear or feel the nudge of the Holy Spirit to begin a NWC near you. Please contact your CNCD for more information or how we can help you move forward as you answer Jesus' call to make disciples and glorify God in this way.

Opportunities to Serve in Shenandoah Presbytery

Committee on Church Vitality and Transformation (CCVT)

Purpose: To provide processes and support for congregations that have an identified need, willingness, and ability to engage in spiritual and/or programmatic growth which can lead to deeper commitment both within and beyond current membership.

Committee on Educational Resources (CER)

Purpose: To provide education and resources in the areas of stewardship, children's ministry, youth and young adult ministry, evangelism, social justice issues, and other areas related to congregational ministry through the use of specialized teams and regional and presbytery-wide training events.

Committee on Mission and Outreach (CMO)

Purpose: Coordinate and oversee local, national, and international mission work through congregations and mission communities. CMO will provide information, resources, encouragement and support.

Committee on New Congregational Development (CNCD)

Purpose: To formulate and implement a comprehensive plan for location, funding, and development of new congregations and new worshipping communities within the bounds of the presbytery.

Committee on Nominations (CN)

Purpose: To nominate to Presbytery individuals to serve on presbytery committees, adhering to established norms of committee membership and representation including vacancies, chairs and vice-chairs; and to nominate persons to serve on presbytery's PJC and as commissioners to Synod and General Assembly meetings.

Committee on Pastoral Transition (CPT)

Purpose: To fulfill all Book of Order and Presbytery Manual responsibilities related to oversight of and guidance to churches and pastors in the process of moving from one pastor/congregation relationship to another. These responsibilities include work related to dissolving pastoral relationships, working with churches in all processes leading to the next pastor call, and examining teaching elders for readiness and suitability to receive calls.

Committee on Preparation for Ministry (CPM)

Purpose: To oversee the care and examination of inquirers and candidates for ministry, inform sessions of the process for inquiry and candidacy, and conduct examinations of candidates seeking calls within the bounds of this presbytery.

Committee on Presbytery Administration (CPA)

Purpose: To oversee the management of presbytery funds, property, and staff.

Committee on Relational Ministry (CRM)

Purpose: To fulfill all Book of Order and Presbytery Manual responsibilities related to oversight of and assistance to churches and teaching elders in their ministry. These responsibilities include all matters related to matriculation of new pastors, periodic visits with sessions and pastors, support for clergy wellness and continuing education.

Committee on Representation (COR)

Purpose: To advise the Presbytery with respect to membership of its committees and to the employment of its personnel per Book of Order G-3.0103.
