

MINISTRY PROGRAM GRANT APPLICATION

Ministry program grant funds are to be used for programs that are new or continue the mission of your church or community. These funds are not intended for staff salaries. Programs that are funded will be monitored through semi-annual reports and a yearly visit to the Committee on Church Vitality and Transformation to assure that goals and objectives are being met. All applications should clearly state the relevance of the grant request to the congregation's mission and vision.

Please use additional paper for completing your answers.
