Virtual Scavenger Hunt

On Sunday, November 2 we had our first ever Virtual Scavenger Hunt! Congratulations to the Anderssons and Osbergs for winning the scavenger hunt! Here are pictures and comments from some families.

"The Vikings" loved the Virtual Scavenger Hunt. Our creative juices were flowing and the logistics of finding all 34 items was a challenge that made it a great bonding experience for all of us! Let's make it a LCR tradition. -Dell and Kjell Anderson

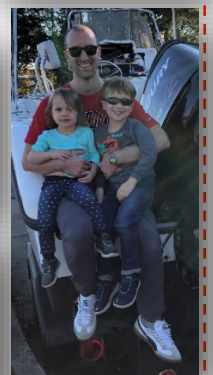

The scavenger hunt was a lot of fun. Great family activity for a Sunday afternoon! -The Love family

We had a blast! It was more fun than we expected! A Big Thank you to all who organized this fun event! -John and Susan Osberg

What an excellent opportunity to sing A Mighty Fortress! Next time, can you ask that we sing all the verses? Pastor Stephen (who else would have said this???)

Children

Hello all,
This week our Bible story is "Parable of the Talents" in Matthew 25:14–30. Please refer to the SS calendar for the pages in the Sparks Bible. Remember to check the packet for the activity pages and family page.

Here is a video link to the "Parable of the Talents." Have a blessed week,

Youth

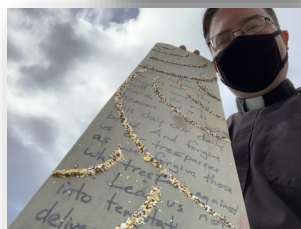

Be-dazzling was so much fun!
There was so much glitter to glorify God. The children and youth did an amazing job with their designs and creativity.

The be-bazzled boards will be used as part of worship on Christ the King Sunday, Nov 22.

Hallelujah:

The Bible and Handel's Messiah
"For unto us a child is born"

Please join us Sunday, November 15 as we will attempt to understand what these words in Handel's Messiah meant at the time they were written, as well as how they came to take on new meanings when they were read by subsequent generations.

Storm Clean-Up Continues

Mark Brosch and I went back to Stone Mountain on Monday to help yet another family deal with their damage the storm caused. There is so much damage to help with! Inspiritus is truly a great organization we are working with. Here is a picture of Mark doing his surgical quality chainsaw work.

-John Osberg

Candles for Luminarias Needed

Bring your new or gently used candles that fit into a brown paper lunch and bun for 5-6 hours to the bin in next to the Gathering Room Doors. No tealights or taper candles please.

Mummy Contest

Congratulations to the Brewick Family for winning the Mummy contest from the Drive-In Movie night! Watch your mail for a gift card from Target.

Thank you to all our Mummies for being such great sports!
