LCR Community,

In Person Worship
Starting this Sunday, May 9 at 8:30 am

I am so excited to be returning to in person worship in the Sanctuary at the 8:30 am service. It's a great option for worship at LCR as we continue to live in the midst of this Pandemic. Remember, we will continue to gather for worship at 11:00 am in the Parking Lot. Those watching online can come to the Gathering Room doors from 12 pm–1pm to receive communion from Pastor Dave.

In the 8:30 am Sanctuary worship service we will practice mask wearing, physical distancing, and hand hygiene. Those practices are going to enable us to care for the health of our vulnerable neighbors in worship. Then together we will get to sing with our masks on. You'll get to hear God's Word read and preached from the pews. And you'll get to come forward to receive Holy Communion. It's going to be beautiful, so make sure you register by Friday because space is limited. Register here.

The 8:30 am service will also be available via Radio and YouTube. It will be broadcast live on 95.1 FM for those who would prefer to sit in the parking lot or for those who have not registered for the service. The service will also be live streamed through our YouTube channel). If you are not feeling well or have been advised to stay away from public gatherings like worship, please stay home and participate through our YouTube channel.

Here's how we will receive communion at the 8:30 am sanctuary worship service.

- The ushers will direct you to come forward in household pods.
- When you get to the last spot before the pastor, use the hand sanitizer station. Once your hands are clean you have the responsibility to make sure that the person in front of you is beginning to head back before you come forward.
- You will then come forward to receive the host, and as is our practice in the parking lot, please fully extend your arms to receive the sacrament.
- Then move to the Assisting Minister station to receive the individual cup of the blood of Christ.
- There you will take off your mask and consume the elements.

Children

Hi Guys!

This week the Bible story is “The Holy Spirit Comes Down” (Acts 10:44 -48). Please check the SS calendar for the page in the Spark Bible. Did you ever wonder what the Holy Spirit is? Watch this video and see if it helps explain it. The Holy Spirit is an invisible power a helper. The Holy Spirit gave the disciples the power to communicate and spread God’s word. Who helps you in your life? How do they help you? Don’t forget the Bible story worksheet, activity page and family page for this week.

Prayer – Holy Spirit,

We can’t see you, but like the wind, we know you are here. Help us know your power and peace. Amen.

See you at worship on Sunday and don’t forget to wish that special someone “Happy Mother’s Day!”

-Ms. Sharon

Friedrich’s Farewell Party Saturday, May 22, 12-4 pm

Please join us in the LCR parking lot to celebrate the Friedrich’s and their ministry at LCR before they move to Knoxville. All are welcome!

In order to maintain social distancing and to allow Pr. Stephen to visit with everyone, there will be 3 time slots to choose from. Please choose only 1 timeslot and indicate how many people will be attending. Each time slot is limited to 50 people but each time slot will have food for everyone attending. Please register for your time slot here.

Hallelujah: The Bible and Handel’s Messiah

Sundays during Resurrection Hour
Through May 23 from 9:30-10:15 am

Join us this Sunday, May 9, as we take a look both scripturally and musically at Psalm 24, thought to be originally an entrance liturgy used in a procession reenacting David’s triumphal march to the temple mount with the ark of the covenant. Handel puts the question “Who is the King of Glory?” into a new context by asking it as a part of the story of Jesus’ death and resurrection. Led by Pastor Dave and our Music Director, Helen Weiss Phelps. Here is the Zoom Link and a link to the handout for this session.

Promise Garden

Thank you to all the gardeners amazing efforts! Carol Littge grew this bunch of carrots that Margaret Perry couldn't let go to the CAC without sharing a photo.

The produce grown in the Promise Garden is picked, cleaned, bagged, and delivered to the CAC Community Advocacy Center in Sandy Springs every week. The gardeners are always looking for new team members. There are opportunities for occasional garden projects, donation drivers, and maintenance of the Memorial Garden. There is even a half plot available at the moment, just waiting for an enthusiastic individual or family. If interested, contact Margaret Perry.

MUST Food for Families Next Collection: May 8, 2-4pm

You did it again! You donated bags and bags and cases of canned foods and paper goods for needy children and families served by

MUST. Their gratitude is unimaginable. Your helping hands come through God's inspiration. Thank you!

Needed items: Toilet tissue, household cleaning supplies, bath soap, deodorant, shampoo, toothpaste, tooth brushes, beans, rice, pasta and canned meats.

Also volunteers are needed for June and July to man the collections on Saturdays. Please sign-up here: MUST Volunteers: Must Family Food Drive \(signupgenius.com\)

Blood Drive at LCR Monday, May 17 from 4-8 pm

Support Hunter Ongaro, daughter of Rachael & Mark Ongaro, granddaughter of Carol & Stuart Owen, by signing up for the blood drive. Hunter's goal is to donate 25 pints of blood through this drive. She is part of the Leader Saves Lives program and is working on a scholarship towards her tuition at Mercer University. She thanks you for your support! You must register, use the QR code or the link in the right hand column. Listen to Hunter talked to Pastor Stephen about the blood drive here.

Announcements

- Once you have consumed the elements and have readjusted your mask, use the hand sanitizer station as you return to your pew for prayer.
- The next person in line should not approach the pastor until this person is ready to go.
- Take your time. Safety and respect for the eucharist is most important.
- We will come forward by pew section at the direction of the ushers. The ushers will guide you to come forward using the center aisle, then you will return to your pew for prayer by the side aisle. Please be patient. Please be prayerful.

Thank you to everyone for your ongoing prayers and support throughout this Pandemic. Because of you our congregation has remained strong and focused on deepening our relationships with Jesus Christ.

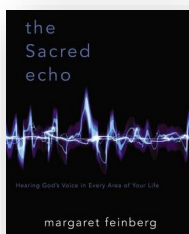

In Christ, Pr. Stephen

New Adult Faith Formation Class Tuesday Evenings 6:30-7:30 pm at LCR May 18—June 29 A Good Old Age* by Derek Prime

We invite you to a study on Derek Prime's book A Good Old Age. Led by Gwen Smith, the discussion will focus on 26 scriptural tenets for how to serve God in later life. Those of us middle age and older will talk about the aging process and some wonderful insights on discipleship, hope, faith, joy, and peace.

Anyone interested please contact Gwen Smith or Pastor Dave.

Resurrection Hour Class Sundays at 9:30 am Sacred Echo* by Margaret Feinberg

“When God really wants to get your attention, He doesn't whisper something once.”

Starting May 16, Dan Gilroy will be leading a 6 week study using the book Sacred Echo with scripture references. Hearing God's voice in every area of your life will be the basis of the reading, discussion and reflection. If interested or have questions, please contact Dan Gilroy.
